

Zespół Szkół Mechanicznych (The Mechanical Schools Complex) is a secondary school situated in Rzeszów - the capital city of south-eastern Poland.

The school originates from the Association of Private Industrial Schools, established in 1925.

Present premises were built in 1957. Since then, the school has undergone considerable restructuring in accordance with changing needs of local craft and industry.

In 1991, the school was named after Lieutenant-General Władysław Anders (11 August 1892 – 12 May 1970) who was a General in the Polish Army and later in life a politician with the Polish government-in-exile in London.
